

1554(?)

Jer 10:1

Salman ibn Kerzais Shevet Yehudah was published

1554

Many I of England had arrested and imprisoned in the Tower of London
THOMAS CRANMER, Archbishop of London; Hugh Latimer, the most famous Protestant preacher in the land; and Nicholas Ridley, bishop of London

1554

St Basil's Cathedral in Moscow was begun in 1554, shows strong Byzantine influence

1554

Jan Hist

Ottoman Empire

death of Moses Hannon

1554

Year West

In Italy: Censorship of Hebrew books was introduced

In Germany: death of Joseph b.
Gershon of Rosheim

1554

Mary of England married Philip crown prince of Spain. Begins persecution of Protestants.

1912 Dates J-BK

1554
(1516-1558) MARY I

Queen of England. Daughter of Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon. Married Philip II of ~~France~~ Spain. In her efforts to restore the Catholic religion she acted always in a legal manner first securing the consent of Parliament to all of her acts. The mass was restored in 1553 and the power of the pope reluctantly acknowledged in 1554. During her reign many persons were burned for their religious faith. Calais was lost (1558) in an effort to please her husband by engaging in war with France.

1554

Bonaventuro Cellini completed the bronze "PERSEUS."